Monthly Message

The Wutherich & Co. Composite was down 3.7% in February. This compares with the S&P/TSX being up 0.3%.

The Russian invasion of Ukraine, Covid, inflation, interest rates and the supply chain continue to impact the market and the Wutherich & Company Portfolio. While the major US indices have performed similarly to the Wutherich & Company Portfolio, the S&P/TSX and various Canadian small cap benchmarks have performed much better. This is due to their heavy weightings in Energy and Gold stocks. We have relatively little exposure here. While we frequently look at companies in these sectors, we have no intention to run out and buy these stocks to chase performance.

Many of our companies have reported or pre-released their recent quarters. While there are certainly areas of weakness, overall, they are doing just fine. We firmly believe that most of our companies have strong and sustainable businesses and should continue to generate strong returns for years to come. Look at our long-term track record. A little patience has gone a long way to achieving good returns.

We would also like to send out a special Thank You! to those clients that made contributions during this year's RRSP season.

Wutherich & Co. Factsheet

Company Objective

Our goal is to seek prosperity for our clients through participation in stable, growing companies in North America, led by strong management teams that we consider our partners for the next five or more years.

Investment Philosophy

Our style can be described as concentrated, disciplined, long-term growth stock investing. The focus is on established companies that generally have a demonstrated track record in revenue, cash flow or earnings per share growth, with strong managements and solid balance sheets. The current emphasis in the portfolio is on the equity of small to medium capitalization companies, defined roughly as $50 million to $5 billion in market capitalization. The portfolio may include large capitalization companies if the right elements are there. Stocks are bought with a keen eye to valuation, so you're not likely to find many high multiple stocks here. The portfolio will likely maintain a significant percentage in foreign securities, providing exposure to investment returns outside of Canada.

*The Wutherich & Co. performance shown here (using the Time Weighted Rate of Return method) is of a composite which combines the performance of all of the accounts managed by Wutherich & Co. that have been invested according to the Wutherich & Co. Portfolio throughout their history. These accounts vary greatly in the size of assets that they contain and whether or not fees have been deducted directly from the accounts during their history. TSX = S&P/TSX Total Return Index. Due to its large capitalization nature and substantially different sector weightings, this index may not be considered comparable to the Wutherich & Co. Portfolio.
