Monthly Message

The Wutherich & Co. Composite was up 7.8% in May. This compares with the S&P/TSX being up 0.1%.

Two steps forward, two steps back.

At least, that's the way it feels. We have seen large monthly gains offset large losses in the Wutherich & Co. Composite for some time while little has changed for the companies that occupy the portfolio. In fact, most of our companies have reported their recent quarters, re-affirming the strength of their operations. Why the disconnect? Look no further than daily (minutely?) headlines about geopolitics and macro-economic issues. In my nearly 30-year career, it has always paid to turn off the background noise and focus on individual investment opportunities. While there is no doubt that the world is in a tough spot right now, outside of nuclear Armageddon, it will get through. Most of our companies will continue to grow revenue, cash flow and earnings and at one point, the market will recognize this and reward them with much higher stock prices.

The following table illustrates the performance of the Wutherich & Co. Composite to the present:

Wutherich & Co. Factsheet

Company Objective

Our goal is to seek prosperity for our clients through participation in stable, growing companies in North America, led by strong management teams that we consider our partners for the next five or more years.

Investment Philosophy

Our style can be described as concentrated, disciplined, long-term growth stock investing. The focus is on established companies that generally have a demonstrated track record in revenue, cash flow or earnings per share growth, with strong managements and solid balance sheets. The current emphasis in the portfolio is on the equity of small to medium capitalization companies, defined roughly as $50 million to $5 billion in market capitalization. The portfolio may include large capitalization companies if the right elements are there. Stocks are bought with a keen eye to valuation, so you're not likely to find many high multiple stocks here. The portfolio will likely maintain a significant percentage in foreign securities, providing exposure to investment returns outside of Canada.

*The Wutherich & Co. performance shown here (using the Time Weighted Rate of Return method) is of a composite which combines the performance of all of the accounts managed by Wutherich & Co. that have been invested according to the Wutherich & Co. Portfolio throughout their history. These accounts vary greatly in the size of assets that they contain and whether or not fees have been deducted directly from the accounts during their history.
