The Wutherich & Co. Composite was up 4.0% in November. This compares with the S&P/TSX up 2.2%, the BMO Small Cap Index up 1.8%, S&P 500 (US$) up 3.7%, the DJIA (US$) up 5.9%, while the NASDAQ (US$) was up 2.6%.

November Trumped October's strong performance for the Wutherich & Co. Composite. Our positions in Avigilon (AVO-T) and CRH Medical (CRH-T) have certainly helped. Both companies reported great quarters and have strong outlooks for future growth. AVO makes security surveillance systems and CRH provides products and services to gastroenterology clinics in the U.S.

This oil rally looks to have legs but we never try to make a big picture call on the sector. When we look at energy names, we choose companies that we think can survive the bad times and thrive in the good times. To wit, we initiated a position in Ensign Energy Services (ESI-T) several months ago. We think ESI is one of the better managed Calgary based oil and gas service providers. The company operates drilling rigs in Canada, the U.S. and overseas with roughly a third of revenues in each segment. ESI has a disciplined, veteran management team that has survived many downturns in the past. With very little capital spending, the company can grow dramatically for several years with its existing asset base, all the while paying a 5% dividend.

Wutherich & Co. Factsheet

Company Objective

Our goal is to seek prosperity for our clients through participation in stable, growing companies in North America, led by strong management teams that we consider our partners for the next five or more years.

Investment Philosophy

Our style can be described as concentrated, disciplined, long-term growth stock investing. The focus is on established companies that generally have a demonstrated track record in revenue, cash flow or earnings per share growth, with strong managements and solid balance sheets. The current emphasis in the portfolio is on the equity of small to medium capitalization companies, defined roughly as $50 million to $5 billion in market capitalization. The portfolio may include large capitalization companies if the right elements are there. Stocks are bought with a keen eye to valuation, so you're not likely to find many high multiple stocks here. The portfolio will likely maintain a significant percentage in foreign securities, providing exposure to investment returns outside of Canada.

*The Wutherich & Co. performance shown here (using the Time Weighted Rate of Return method) is of a composite which combines the performance of all of the accounts managed by Wutherich & Co. that have been invested according to the Wutherich & Co. Portfolio throughout their history. These accounts vary greatly in the size of assets that they contain and whether or not fees have been deducted directly from the accounts during their history. BMOSCI-wtd = BMO Small Cap Index, Total Return, weighted. This index is currently the most comparable to the Wutherich & Co. portfolio due to its average market capitalization, though it may differ greatly in its sector weightings; TSX = S&P/TSX Total Return Index.
