The Wutherich & Co. Composite was up 2.2% in June. This compares with the S&P/TSX up 1.7% and the BMO Small Cap Index down 0.3%.

In June, The Wutherich & Co. Portfolio crept forward with very little news affecting our companies. Though the winds of trade war are blowing, there does not appear to be any significant impact, yet, on our names.

We have added another position to the portfolio in recent months: Questor Technology Inc. (QST-T). The company, based in Calgary, makes combustion systems that help reduce greenhouse gas emissions from a wide variety of sources. We have always been sensitive to environmental issues in the portfolio and QST definitely plays into this. The company's main market is now the oil and gas producing regions of Colorado. We see the potential for adoption in other basins as well. This should provide QST with years of rapid revenue growth and improving profitability.

In the coming months, we hope to eliminate a few of the weaker names in the portfolio and redeploy the cash in a handful of stronger ideas. Cut the weeds and water the flowers, to paraphrase investing legend Peter Lynch.

Lastly, we would like our readers to note our new mailing address: 24 Brock Avenue, North, Montreal West, Quebec, H4X 2E9

Wutherich & Co. Factsheet

Company Objective

Our goal is to seek prosperity for our clients through participation in stable, growing companies in North America, led by strong management teams that we consider our partners for the next five or more years.

Investment Philosophy

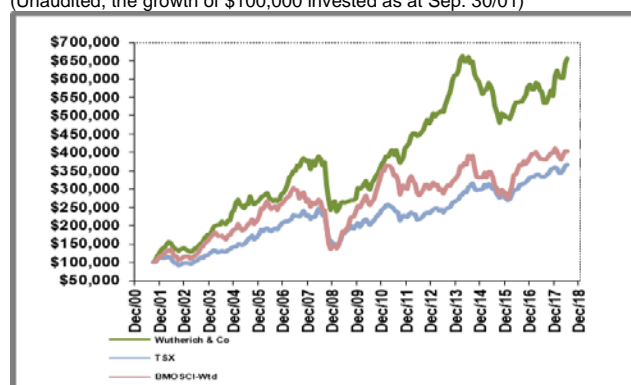

Our style can be described as concentrated, disciplined, long-term growth stock investing. The focus is on established companies that generally have a demonstrated track record in revenue, cash flow or earnings per share growth, with strong managements and solid balance sheets. The current emphasis in the portfolio is on the equity of small to medium capitalization companies, defined roughly as $50 million to $5 billion in market capitalization. The portfolio may include large capitalization companies if the right elements are there. Stocks are bought with a keen eye to valuation, so you're not likely to find many high multiple stocks here. The portfolio will likely maintain a significant percentage in foreign securities, providing exposure to investment returns outside of Canada.

Portfolio throughout their history. These accounts vary greatly in the size of assets that they contain and whether or not fees have been deducted directly from the accounts during their history.
