The Wutherich & Co. Composite posted a 4.8% gain in February versus the S&P/TSX being up 1.8%.

Strong performance in the Wutherich & Company Composite continued in February. We put this down to the strength of the names in our portfolio and their relative cheapness. Our names have started to report their most recent quarters and we have no reason to believe that they are experiencing any significant weakness.

We are down to less than 1% cash in the portfolio after having added another financial name. More on this in the coming months.

Geopolitical factors continue to cast a shadow over markets while strong US economic numbers remain supportive. How this shakes out, we have no idea. What we do have a pretty clear idea of is that our companies are well positioned to thrive for years to come and that this should provide us with good long-term returns.

JF and I would like to thank those clients that made contributions to their RRSPs and TFSAs early in this new year.

Company Objective

Our goal is to seek prosperity for our clients through participation in stable, growing companies in North America, led by strong management teams that we consider our partners for the next five or more years.

Investment Philosophy

Our style can be described as concentrated, disciplined, long-term growth stock investing. The focus is on established companies that generally have a demonstrated track record in revenue, cash flow or earnings per share growth, with strong managements and solid balance sheets. The current emphasis in the portfolio is on the equity of small to medium capitalization companies, defined roughly as $50 million to $5 billion in market capitalization. The portfolio may include large capitalization companies if the right elements are there. Stocks are bought with a keen eye to valuation, so you're not likely to find many high multiple stocks here. The portfolio will likely maintain a significant percentage in foreign securities, providing exposure to investment returns outside of Canada.

*The Wutherich & Co. performance shown here (using the Time Weighted Rate of Return method) is of a composite which combines the performance of all of the accounts managed by Wutherich & Co. that have been invested according to the Wutherich & Co. Portfolio throughout their history. These accounts vary greatly in the size of assets that they contain and whether or not fees have been deducted directly from the accounts during their history. TSX = S&P/TSX Total Return Index. Due to its large capitalization nature and substantially different sector weightings, this index may not be considered comparable to the Wutherich & Co. Portfolio.
